MILL RIVER

Can you handle me the

Another season of my life is done,

WELCOME TO MILL RIVER

Welcome to the 2008 MRUHS
yearbook. We hope everyone finds this book
as much fun to read, as it was hard work to produce.

Dedication and Appreciation

Mrs. Shirley Bruso

*"She has been as much a part of Mill River as the red, white and blue and the Mill River logo."
-The Rutland Herald*

Shirley Bruso is one of the earliest members of the Mill River Union High School staff with her employment beginning prior to the school being built and opened in 1975. In addition to her many years of a successful coaching career in girls' basketball and softball, she has served as the main office clerk, guidance secretary and first registrar. Her hard work, devotion and loyalty to Mill River and countless hours of service exemplify the finest qualities of a coach and person.

She enjoyed watching her own children graduate from Mill River and now spends time with her grandchildren and great grandchild.

We wish Shirley continued success in whatever she chooses to do in her well-earned retirement.

A collage of 18 photographs showing students in various school settings, including hallways, classrooms, and sports areas, smiling and posing for the camera. The photos are arranged in a grid-like fashion, with some overlapping. The students are dressed in casual attire, and the backgrounds show typical school environments like lockers, bulletin boards, and gymnasiums. The overall tone is positive and nostalgic.

January 3, 1989 - March 6, 2008
You Will Always be in Our Hearts

And, just at that moment when someone at my side says,
"There, she is gone."
There are other eyes watching her coming, and other voices ready to take up the glad shout, Here, here she comes."

Peace Joey, Peace...

-As Spoken by Mary Bride at Joey's Funeral

A big thank you goes to Mary Bride for helping "push" our project along, and Rob Black for all his help putting the sports pages together. No se ve bien sino con el corazón; lo esencial es invisible para los ojos....
Los hombres han olvidado esta verdad
-dijo el zorro-, pero tú no debes olvidarla.
(el zorro al pequeño príncipe)

*It is only with the heart that one can see rightly; what is essential is invisible to the eye.
(the Fox to the Little Prince)*

And in the words of von Goethe: "Whatever you can do, or dream you can do, begin it.
Boldness has genius, power and magic in it.
Begin it now".

Congratulations Logan! How amazing you are as you continue to unfold your perfect self, and learn to trust your perfect heart! You can do anything!

We love you!!
Mom, Dad, Corey, and all the critters!

I would like to thank all of the people who helped put the yearbook together this year. It was not an easy task, but we pulled it off. A big thank you goes to all of the staff members who stuck around until the end: Emily Anderson, Benjamin Burhans, Lily Chaffe, Lauren Eno, Steven Eno, Stephanie Gould, Angela Knox, Brianne Lebel-Stephen, Kyle Lewis, Ashley Moore, Jessica Moore, Amanda Penney, Heather Rabin, Tess Romano & Katelyn Tuliper. Everyone did an amazing job, and we have a yearbook we can all be proud of.

Thank You,
Carling Monder

Our song
is the way
you laugh,
the first date

"Man I didn't

kiss her and I should have..."

crazy, I'm thinking, just knowing that the world is round and here I'll be dancing on the ground am I right side up, or upside down and is this real, or am I dreaming?...

"I will always stand my ground
when these walls come tumbling down..."

"Break me down, you've got a lovely face..."

"If you're a bird then I'm a bird..."

"It'll be better when I'm older, I'll be the greatest fan of your life..."

"We fly high, nolie, you know it..."

"Man, I don't know what to do..."

"Say I was a fan of your life..."

"I'm a fan of your life..."
